

Willetta Carson & Band present

American Christmas

Willetta Carson, a native born Afroamerican, sings with power and charm the music of Cole Porter and Antonio Carlos Jobim and George Gerschwin.

The show features holiday Christmas favorites played in jazz styles ranging from swing to blues and bosas. Gospel, spirituals and some jazz and blues standards fitting to the season will round the program off to an enchanting evening of American Christmas charm and culture.

It's a musical event you won't want to miss. Heartfelt entertainment that touches the spirit and warms the soul.